19. Failure to comply with any of the provisions of articles 15 to 18 shall render any resolution for the expulsion of a person from membership invalid.
20. A person expelled from membership under articles 14 to 19 shall cease to be a member with effect from the time at which the relevant resolution is passed.

GENERAL MEETINGS

21. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
22. An extraordinary general meeting shall be convened by the directors on requisition by members (under section 368 of the Act) or on requisition by a resigning auditor (under section 391 of the Act).
23. Subject to the preceding article and to the requirements under section 366 of the Act as to the holding of annual general meetings, the directors may convene general meetings whenever they think fit.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

24. An annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting convened for the passing of a special resolution or a resolution requiring special notice shall be called by at least twenty one clear days' notice; all other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice.
25. A notice convening a meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting; it shall also state the terms of any resolution which is to be proposed as a special resolution or extraordinary resolution or which constitutes a resolution requiring special notice and shall indicate the general nature of any other business to be transacted at the meeting.
26. A notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as an annual general meeting.
27. Notice of every general meeting shall be given to all directors, and shall be posted upon such notice board or notice boards within the villages of Dunlop and Lugton and within the Hall as the directors shall from time to time determine (but shall be posted on at least one notice board within the Hall and at least one public notice board within the village of Dunlop). Further notice may be given in such manner and to such persons as the directors may determine.
28. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

29. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present; twenty persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a proxy for a member, shall be a quorum.
30. If the quorum required under the preceding article is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairman of the meeting.
31. The convener (or, in his absence, the vice convener) shall (if present and willing to act as chairman) preside as chairman of the meeting; if neither the convener nor the vice-convener is present and willing to act as chairman within half an hour of the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their number to act as chairman or, if there is only one director present and willing to act, he shall be chairman.
32. If no director willing to act as chairman is present within half an hour after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall elect one of their number to be chairman.
33. The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
34. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which could properly have been transacted at the meeting which was adjourned if the adjournment had not taken place.
35. Where a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and indicating the general nature of the business to be transacted; in any other case, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting.
36. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded by the chairman or by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting and a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be deemed to be a demand by such member.
37. Unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the preceding article, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

38. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman; a demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made nor the result of a show of hands declared after the demand is so withdrawn.
39. If a poll is demanded in accordance with article 36, it shall be taken at once by means of a secret ballot of all the persons present and entitled to vote (whether as members or as proxies for members) conducted in such manner as the chairman may direct; the result of such poll shall be declared at the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
40. A resolution in writing signed by all the members shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held; it may consist of several documents in the same form each signed by one or more members.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

41. Every member shall have one vote which may be given either personally or (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) by proxy.
42. A member who wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on his behalf at any meeting (or adjourned meeting) shall lodge with the company, at the office, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or, as the case may be, adjourned meeting), a written instrument of proxy (in such form as the directors require), signed by him; an instrument of proxy which does not conform with the preceding provisions or which is not lodged in accordance with such provisions shall be invalid.
43. A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.
44. A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a member shall have the same right as the member who appointed him to speak at the meeting and need not be a member of the company.
45. A vote given, or poll demanded, by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll had terminated prior to the giving of such vote or demanding of such poll unless notice of such termination was received by the company at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was given or the poll demanded.
46. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.
47. No objection may be raised as to the validity of any vote except at the meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid; any such objection shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

MAXIMUM AND MINIMUM NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

48. The maximum number of directors shall (unless otherwise determined by special resolution) be nine, and (unless otherwise determined by special resolution) the minimum number of directors shall be two. Provided that sufficient Group Nominees (as defined in article 49) have been available at time of appointment, one third of the directors, but at no time more than one third of the directors, shall be directors who were endorsed in accordance with article 49 or appointed in accordance with article 51 as Group Nominees.

APPOINTMENT, RETIRAL, RE-APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

49. Only members of the Company shall be eligible to be directors of the Company. Any member who wishes to be considered for appointment as a director at an annual general meeting (a "candidate") shall lodge with the company, at any time up to seven clear days prior to the date of the annual general meeting, a nomination (in such form as the directors require) signed by one proposer and one seconder both of whom shall be members of the company and neither of whom shall be a parent, spouse, sibling or the whole or half-blood or child or other descendent of the candidate and incorporating a written notice signed by the candidate of the candidate's willingness to be appointed. If such a nomination is endorsed on behalf of not less than three recognised user groups and such endorsement is included in said notice and is (as regards each endorsing recognised user group) signed by the authorised representative thereof as appearing in the company's register of recognised user groups, that candidate for appointment as a director shall be deemed to be a Group Nominee in terms of these articles.
50. At an annual general meeting the company may by ordinary resolution appoint as directors any member in respect of whom a nomination has been received in compliance with the preceding article. Provided that sufficient Group Nominees are available for appointment, said right of appointment shall be exercised so that following said meeting one third of the directors of the company, but not more than one third, shall in accordance with article 48 be appointed from candidates who are Group Nominees. Except where these regulations provide otherwise either explicitly or by necessary implication, there shall be no differentiation between directors who were not appointed as Group Nominees and directors who were appointed as Group Nominees, all references in these regulations to directors shall mean both directors not appointed as Group Nominees and directors appointed as Group Nominees, and there shall be no differentiation between the statutory and other powers and duties of directors not appointed as Group Nominees and directors appointed as Group Nominees.
51. The directors may at any time appoint any member (provided he is willing to act), to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director. Where it is necessary in order to comply with article 48 that a director appointed as aforesaid should be a candidate who is a Group Nominee, the recognised user groups shall be given notice to that effect and the directors shall make the appointment from such candidates (if any) who have within such a period as the directors shall have determined and intimated lodged with the company, in each case, a written notice of his willingness to be appointed (in such form as the directors require) signed by him and endorsed by not less than three recognised user groups in the same manner as is provided in article 49. If the directors do not within the period determined and intimated as aforesaid receive notice of willingness to be appointed from any Group Nominee, they may appoint any member to be a director to fill the vacancy or as an additional director, as the case may be.

52. At the first annual general meeting all the directors shall retire from office.
53. At each annual general meeting (other than the first):
 - (a) All directors who have been appointed by the directors since the date of the last annual general meeting shall retire from office.
 - (b) Out of the remaining directors, one-third (to the nearest round number) shall retire from office, of which retiring directors one-third (to the nearest round number above) shall be directors who were appointed from Group Nominees.
54. Subject to the requirements of article 53(b) that one-third (to the nearest number above) of retiring directors shall be directors who were appointed from Group Nominees, the directors to retire under paragraph (b) of article 53 shall be those who have been longest in office since they were last appointed or re-appointed. The question of who is to retire as between directors appointed or re-appointed on the same date shall be determined by lot.
55. The company may at any annual general meeting by ordinary resolution re-appoint any director who retires from office at the meeting under articles 52 or 53, providing he is willing to act and providing that he is not a director who at that annual general meeting shall have completed two consecutive full terms (that is to say, terms of three years or thereby) as a director; if any retiring director is not re-appointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting. Where any director who is re-appointed or who retains office as aforesaid was at time of original appointment a Group Nominee, that director shall continue to be counted as one of the directors appointed from candidates who were Group Nominees.

DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

56. A director shall vacate office if:
 - (a) He ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Act or becomes prohibited by law from being a director.
 - (b) He becomes bankrupt or apparently insolvent.

- (c) He becomes incapable for medical reasons of fulfilling the duties of his office and such incapacity is expected to continue for a period of more than six months.
- (d) He becomes an employee of the company.
- (e) He ceases to be a member of the company.
- (f) He resigns office by notice to the company.
- (g) He is absent (without permission of the directors) from more than three successive meetings of directors held in any period of six months or more and the directors resolve to remove him from office.

APPOINTMENTS TO EXECUTIVE OFFICE

- 57. Directors shall be appointed to hold the offices of convener, vice convener, treasurer and such other executive offices as the directors may consider appropriate subject always to the proviso that no director who was appointed as a Group Nominee shall hold office as convener or vice convener. Each of the foregoing offices shall be held, subject to article 60, until the conclusion of the annual general meeting which next follows appointment.
- 58. The appointments to executive office under the preceding article shall, subject to article 61, be made at a meeting of directors held as soon as reasonably practicable after the incorporation of the company and thereafter at a meeting of directors held immediately after each annual general meeting.
- 59. A director whose period of executive office expires under article 57 may be re-appointed to such office (providing he is willing to act).
- 60. The appointment of any director to executive office shall terminate if he ceases to be a director or if he resigns from such executive office by notice to the company.
- 61. If the appointment of any director to executive office terminates under the preceding article, the directors shall, at a meeting of directors held as soon as reasonably practicable after such termination, appoint another director to hold such office in his place; a director so appointed shall (subject to article 60) hold such executive office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting which follows such appointment.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

- 62. Subject to the provisions of the Act and of clause 4 of the memorandum of association and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director notwithstanding his office:

- (a) May be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise interested.
- (b) May be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the company or in which the company is otherwise interested.
- (c) Shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be treated as void on the ground of any such interest or benefit.

63. For the purposes of the preceding article:

- (a) A general notice given to the directors that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified.
- (b) An interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

- 66. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the memorandum of association and the articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the company.
- 67. No alteration of the memorandum of association or these articles and no direction given by special resolution shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given.
- 68. The powers conferred by article 66 shall not be limited by any special power conferred on the directors by the articles.
- 69. A meeting of directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the directors.
- 70. The directors may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the company for such purpose and on such conditions as they may determine, including authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his powers.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

- 71. Subject to the provisions of the articles, the directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.
- 72. Any director may call a meeting of the directors or request the Secretary to call a meeting of the directors.
- 73. No notice of a meeting of directors need be given to a director who is absent from the United Kingdom.
- 74. Questions arising at a meeting of directors shall be decided by a majority of votes; in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- 75. Subject to article 77, the quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the directors and, unless so fixed at any other number, shall be the nearest whole number representing one third of the total number of directors.
- 76. Subject to article 77, the continuing directors or (provided that he was not appointed as a Group Nominee in terms of articles 49 or 51) a sole continuing director may act notwithstanding vacancies but if the number of remaining directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, they or he may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

77. No business may be transacted by the directors unless a majority of the directors present are directors who were not appointed as Group Nominees in terms of articles 49 or 51.
78. Unless he is unwilling to do so, the convener shall preside as chairman at every meeting of directors at which he is present.
79. If the convener is unwilling to act as chairman or is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the vice convener shall act as chairman; if the vice convener is not willing to act as chairman or is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors present may appoint one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
80. All acts done by a meeting of directors or by a meeting of a committee of directors or by a person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or that any of them was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office or was not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote; except that the provisions of this article 80 shall not apply to anything done in contravention of articles 48 or 77 or 82.
81. Subject to article 77, a resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held; it may consist of several documents in the same form each signed by one or more directors.
82. Except as otherwise provided by the articles, a director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company unless his interest or duty arises only because the case falls within either or both of the following paragraphs:
- (a) The resolution relates to the giving to him of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent to, or any obligation incurred by him for the benefit of, the company or any of its subsidiaries.
 - (b) The resolution relates to the giving to a third party of a guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of an obligation of the company or any of its subsidiaries for which the director has assumed responsibility in whole or part (and whether alone or jointly with others) under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security.
83. For the purposes of the preceding article, an interest of a person who is, for any purpose of the Act (excluding any statutory modification not in force at the date of incorporation of the company), connected with a director shall be treated as an interest of the director; and an interest of a recognised user group shall be treated as an interest of a director whose nomination for appointment as a director was endorsed by that recognised user group in terms of article 49.

84. A director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he is not entitled to vote.
85. The company may by special resolution suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, any provision of the articles prohibiting a director from voting at a meeting of the directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors; except in relation to an interest of a recognised user group which is deemed to be an interest of that director in terms of article 83.
86. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more directors to executive offices with the company the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately; provided he is not for another reason precluded from voting, each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.
87. If a question arises at a meeting of directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman of the meeting; his ruling in relation to any director other than himself shall be final and conclusive.
88. The directors may invite or allow any person to attend and speak, but not to vote, at any meeting or meetings of the directors or of any committee of the directors.

DELEGATION TO COMMITTEES OF DIRECTORS AND HOLDERS OF EXECUTIVE OFFICE

89. The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors; they may also delegate to the convener or any director holding any other executive office such of their powers as they consider desirable to be exercised by him.
90. Any delegation of powers under the preceding article may be made subject to such conditions as the directors may impose and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered.
91. Subject to any condition imposed in pursuance of the preceding article, the proceedings of a committee consisting of two or more directors shall be governed by the articles regulating the proceedings of meetings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.

DELEGATION TO GENERAL COMMITTEES

92. For the purposes of the articles, "general committee" means a committee appointed by the directors whose constitution complies with article 94.

93. The directors may, subject to articles 96, 97 and 98, delegate to any general committee all such powers as the directors may think fit; any such delegation shall be made collaterally with, and not to the exclusion of, the director's powers and may be revoked or altered.
94. The members of a general committee shall include at least one director and a majority of the other members of the committee shall be members of the company; the remaining members of the committee need not be members of the company.
95. The director included among the members of a general committee (or, if more than one director is included among the members of the committee, the director appointed to such office at a meeting of directors) shall hold office as convener of the committee; except in relation to any matter in which he has an interest as defined in article 82.
96. Each general committee shall regulate its proceedings in accordance with the directions issued by the directors and shall give effect to any instruction or decision on matters of principle issued or made by the directors.
97. Unless otherwise determined by special resolution, the following matters shall be excluded from delegation to any general committee:
 - (a) Any introduction of a new policy or any change in policy which could have a significant impact on the company or which would fall within the responsibility of another committee or conflict with the declared policy of another committee.
 - (b) Any matter involving expenditure not in accordance with the financial regulations of the company.
 - (c) Any capital building project.
 - (d) The appointment or dismissal of any employee of the company.
98. All contracts with third parties in connection with the discharge of the functions of a general committee shall be entered into by the convener of the committee or, in his absence, by some other director of the company; but no director shall so enter a contract if he has an interest in it as defined in article 82. No member of a general committee (other than a director) shall contract, or hold himself out as contracting, on behalf of the company.
99. All acts done by a general committee shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any member of the committee or that any member of the committee was not qualified to act as such, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was so qualified.

100. A resolution in writing signed by all the members of a general committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the committee duly convened and held; it may consist of several documents in the same form each signed by one or more members of the committee.

REGISTER OF RECOGNISED USER GROUPS

101. The directors shall cause to be maintained a register of these entities, voluntary organisations or associations, clubs or other groups which (a) in the opinion of the directors, acting reasonably, use the Hall as a principle venue for their activities and/or regularly and/or to a significant extent, and (b) have applied to be entered in said register, and (c) the directors have determined should be so entered. An entity, voluntary organisation or association, club or other group currently entered in said register is in these regulations called a "recognised user group". Applications for entry in said register shall be in writing, in such form as the directors may require, and shall be signed by two authorised representatives of the proposed recognised user group. The application shall give particulars of the person who(until some other person is appointed for the purpose) is authorised to sign endorsements in terms of article 51 of these regulations and for any other purpose to represent that recognised user group and to receive any communications on behalf of that recognised user group. The application shall be accompanied by the constitution or equivalent document of the proposed recognised user group, evidence of the current office bearers thereof, a list of the current membership and such other information as the directors may require. The directors may remove any recognised user group from the said register if they determine that it is no longer qualified to be registered as such. The directors may from time to time make such regulations as they consider appropriate regarding said register, the information required for inclusion therein, procedures for entry in and removal from said register, and matters concerning recognised user groups.

SECRETARY

102. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the secretary shall be appointed by the directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them.

MINUTES

103. The directors shall ensure that minutes are made (in books kept for the purpose) of all proceedings at general meetings, meetings of the directors, meetings of committees of directors and meetings of general committees; a minute of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall include the names of the directors present.

ACCOUNTS

104. The directors shall cause accounting records to be kept by the company in accordance with Section 221 of the Act.

105. The accounting records shall be kept at the office or, subject to section 222 of the Act, at such other place or places as the directors may think fit, and the accounting records shall always be open to the inspection of any director.
106. No member shall (as such) have any right of inspecting any accounting records or other book or document of the company except as conferred by statute or as authorised by the directors or by ordinary resolution of the company.

AUDITORS

107. The company shall not be required to appoint Auditors unless required to do so by law.

NOTICES

108. Subject to article 27, any notice to be given in pursuance of these articles shall be in writing; the company may give any such notice to a member either personally or by sending it by post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address.
109. Any notice, if sent by post, shall be deemed to have been given at the expiry of twenty four hours after posting; for the purpose of proving that any notice was given, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and posted.
110. A member present at any meeting of the company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

WINDING-UP

111. If the company is wound up, the liquidator shall transfer the assets of the company to an appropriate body in accordance with the provisions of the memorandum of association.

INDEMNITY

112. Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a director may otherwise be entitled, every director or other officer or auditor of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company against any loss or liability which he may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of his office including, without prejudice to that generality, any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the company.
